

ADR STRATEGIES

JOAN B. KESSLER, JD, PhD

You are receiving this communication as a result of your interest in alternative dispute resolution (ADR).

As this year begins to unfold, I am pleased with the new level of collegiality I am seeing among counsel at my mediations. I see:

- Enhanced communication when counsel are civil to each other, which yields more productive results.
- Shorter time to reach resolution when counsel are willing to cooperate and share briefs and relevant documents prior to the mediation.
- Greater overall client satisfaction at the end of the session when counsel are professional and communicate respectfully with opposing counsel during the mediation process.

Many years ago I received a Ph.D. from the University of Michigan in Communications. Before I went to law school I taught interpersonal relations, group interaction, conflict resolution, intercultural communication courses and served as a jury consultant. I apply the communication issues and solutions I taught, coupled with close to 30 years of legal practice experience to my alternative dispute resolution practice. I am, also, pleased to serve on the Board of Governors of Loyola Law School and to be Managing Director of CaseXplorer[®] Arbitration[™] (CXA), the innovative online arbitration evaluative tool. Feel free to call me to discuss CXA. To find out more information on CXA, click on the following link: CaseXplorer Arbitration.

THINK ABOUT THIS PRIOR TO YOUR NEXT MEDIATION/ARBITRATION
